Exchange Program

◆Team System

- Community Life, Leadership Training, Work Duty

All students are assigned into faculty-led teams of approximately 30 students. The team meets once a week on Wednesday for chapel, work-duty, and for social and recreational events. Team professor and members will be your academic advisors, mentors and your trusted friends!

◆Accommodation / RC

- International dormitory (International RC)

Handong Global University's International House (I-House) is a dormitory designed specifically to cultivate students with global minds. Many students with vastly different backgrounds live together in this small community. There are activities such as "Culture Nights," "Wednesday Floor Fellowships," and "Friday Game or Movie Nights" for fellowship between students. Koreans do live in I-House as well and usually in a room 2 Koreans and 2 foreigners will live together.

[Living Conditions]

- 3-4 students per room
- Furniture include beds, desks, bookshelves, closets in each room
- Facilities: shower stalls, latrines, laundry room, lounge (cooking facilities are not available in regular dorms)
- International dorm has a kitchen where students can cook meals.
- All utilities included in price (gas, electric, water, air conditioning)
- In-room, high-speed Internet access included in price (Wi-Fi)

◆ Health Insurance

All International Students are required to have health insurance covering personal accident, medical expenses throughout the entire-period of their study at HGU. Students can either purchase the HGU approved and recommended Health Insurance Plan or provide us with a copy of their own insurance information.

- If students want to purchase HGU recommended Health Insurance, they will have to pay KRW 100,000 (approx. USD 100) for 6 months plan. The payment will be placed at the orientation registration.
- If students already have insurance that is applied in Korea during their stay, they can submit the proof of insurance with the application. (Proof of insurance: either the copy of the health insurance certificate or insurance application form)

◆ Student Visa

After students are accepted as exchange student, they need to apply for a student visa in order to stay in the Republic of Korea.

! Make sure your passport is valid throughout the entire duration of your stay.

In order to apply for a student visa, you need to have a valid passport. Please make sure to obtain a passport before applying for your visa. If you do not have a valid passport, make one before you apply for your visa.

step1. Screening documents by HGU international student advisor

After you are accepted to HGU, our int'l student advisor will screen your submitted documents according to the Immigration Policy of Korea.

step2. HGU will issue and send a certificate of admission (acceptance letter) and other necessary visa issuance documents by airmail

These documents will be sent out by airmail to the exchange program coordinator at your home university no later than July, 2016

We will send you following documents for your visa.

- Certificate of Admission (acceptance letter)
- Business Certificate of HGU
- Certificate of Scholarship (only for recipient)
- Letter of Tuition Exemption
- Copy of the agreement between HGU and your university
