Thanksgiving Break – November 23-25, 2022

Subject to change. Find details at <https://www.grace.edu/calendar/>

Recommended date of arrival: January 19, 2022. Arrival should be coordinated with the Program Coordinator of Institute for Global Studies in order to arrange transportation from the airport to Grace College's campus.

Orientation Information: August 19-21 - Welcome Weekend is the time when Grace welcomes new students to campus. This is a free orientation weekend event introducing new students to the Grace campus family. The Campus Store, Business Office, Office of the Registrar, Financial Aid Office, Student Affairs Office, and the Health and Counseling Center, among others, are all open during Welcome Weekend to assist new students. Meetings and other events are scheduled throughout the weekend to help first-year students learn about the Grace campus and community and to become familiar with expectations and the campus environment. An international student meeting will be held for all international students, including exchange students. Students will be given a short introduction to American culture and language and F-1 visa status requirements, meet other international students, and be given an opportunity to ask questions. You will be given a final schedule of Welcome Weekend Events upon arrival.

Course Lists & Registration: Students select courses from the online academic catalog found at <https://www.grace.edu/academics/student-resources/academic-catalog/>, and mark which courses they select on the Exchange Course Registration Form. Availability of classes is limited. Certain classes may not be available. All course schedule can be found at <https://www.grace.edu/admissions/undergraduate/registrar/class-schedules/>. Students may not be able to enroll in first choice of classes. As part of orientation, student can meet with advisor and/or Office of the Registrar to change classes for first session.

Course Structure & Codes: The semester is split into two 8-week sessions: Session A and Session B. There are session classes & full semester classes available. Students can take anywhere between 12-18 credits per semester. Students cannot take more than 4 courses in a session. Course credits are based on the amount of teaching hours. Most courses are 3 credits per course. Normally, 3 credits at Grace is equal to about 6 ECTS. Course codes are referred to as 1000, 2000, 3000 (and so on) level, that is, the numeric part of the course code begins with 1, 2 or 3. Course levels reflect the increasing level of knowledge and skills expected in a course. Courses at higher levels will have assessment tasks that require a demonstration of greater depth of knowledge and greater complexity in skills.

A quick level key:

1000 - introductory

2000 - mid-level

3000 - senior

4000 - advanced

FINANCIAL EXPENSES

Housing Information: Grace College's room and board rates for the school year are listed on the website at <https://www.grace.edu/admissions/undergraduate/tuition-costs/>. Grace College will house exchange students with a roommate in Grace College's Encompass Hall and assist them with the logistics of transportation to and from the airport per the agreement between Grace College and sending institution. Grace College will assist students in finding temporary housing when the residence halls close for holidays or other breaks during the semester. Find more information at <https://www.grace.edu/about/campus/campus-facilities/residence-halls/>.

Medical Insurance Policy: Students should provide verification of international health insurance with their application. Students will be contacted by Grace College's Health & Counseling Center after acceptance for verification and assistance in obtaining insurance if student cannot provide it.

Mandatory Fees (if any): There is a comprehensive student fee of $450 per semester. Students should plan for additional expenses such as books, class materials, personal items, health insurance, utilities, and personal trips. Books and other materials are not included in the room and board rates. There is textbook rental available through Grace College for $125 per semester. The I-901 Student and Exchange Visitor Information Fee (SEVIS) is required by the US government for all international students. Visit <https://www.fmjfee.com/> for more information.

COVID-19 NOTICES – AS OF MARCH 2022
